

Pastor's perspective

We are continuing our message series entitled, "You'll Get Through This," based on the Old Testament life example of Joseph. We have been following Joseph's life from being tossed into a pit by his brothers, sold into slavery, wrongfully imprisoned and forgotten. You will learn first-hand through Joseph's life that getting through life's trials is not always a quick and painless process. You will also learn how to trust God in the midst of your life trials.

This message series will run throughout our church services; Sunday's at our 8:30 and 10 AM services and Sunday evenings at 6:30 PM we will build on what we have learned in the morning worship service. Tuesday evenings at 6:30 PM we'll discuss how to practically apply what we've learned.

I invite you to come and learn how you can get through life's trials victoriously!
